PRELIMINARY FACTUAL FINDINGS & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. Plaintiff is likely to prevail on its Lanham Act, Copyright Act and related common law claims at trial.

B. As a result of Defendants' infringements, Plaintiff, as well as consumers, are likely to suffer immediate and irreparable losses, damages and injuries:

- a. Defendants have offered for sale and sold substandard Counterfeit Products in the United States that infringe the Denim Tears Marks and/or Denim Tears Work; and
- b. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that more Counterfeit Products will appear in the United States marketplace; that consumers may be misled, confused and disappointed by the quality of these Counterfeit Products, resulting in injury to Plaintiff's reputation and goodwill; and that Plaintiff may suffer loss of sales for the Denim Tears Products.

C. The balance of potential harm to Defendants of being prevented from continuing to profit from their illegal and infringing activities if a preliminary injunction order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiff, its business, the goodwill and reputation built up in and associated with the Denim Tears Marks and Denim Tears Work and to its reputation if the relief granted in the TRO is not continued through the pendency of this action.

D. Public interest favors issuance of the preliminary injunction order in order to protect Plaintiff's interests in and to its Denim Tears Marks and Denim Tears Work, and to protect the public from being deceived and defrauded by Defendants' passing off of their substandard Counterfeit Products as Denim Tears Products.
